Using these specifications to choose a product

The capsule reference is identified by its white colour and inflatable shelter format. The current record does not provide numeric dimensions, a material grade or a capacity rating. A useful project request should therefore attach this exact photograph and ask for a dimensioned drawing of the selected version. Do not transfer dimensions from the compact sleep pod, which is a separate catalog reference.

For Capsule Inflatable Tent, the published record states Product format: inflatable capsule tent, Colour: white. Keep those values together under this reference when building a wholesale product shortlist; a value from a neighbouring model does not describe this item.
